INT. ROSIE'S HOUSE - ROSIE'S LIVING ROOM - MORNING

A modern-day living room with nice expensive furniture, large TV and a computer with a desk in one corner. In another corner is a piano a music stand and an oboe in it's stand.

STEWART LITTLEWOOD(19) a slim dark haired man with mild down syndrome is on sofa watching TV. ROSIE LITTLEWOOD(22), slim dark haired woman (in a lesbian in a relationship with LUCY CONNER) comes into the room.

ROSEY

What are you watching Stew?

STEWART

Saturday kitchen.

ROSEY

(Looking closely at the)

(TV)

Never seen him before. Is he any good?

STEWART

Well, that's debatable. It's Donal Skehan. According to Brigid he once nearly cut his finger off live on TV.

ROSEY

If he is Irish. Maybe his mum should have told him not to play with sharp knives.

The sound off coughing is heard as LOUISE CONNER(22), a young blond girl comes in.

ROSEY (CONT'D)

She was snoring last night.

LUCY

Me! I never snore.

ROSEY

(Looking at Stewart.)

Had to nudge her several times.

(Looking at her.)

I am going to stuff a cork in that mouth of yours one of these days. Anyway, why haven't you brought the washing down.
